MSU AT WORK...

AND AT PLAY!

NORMA FRIES
Editor

This is MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY — where you worked, played and dreamed for nine months. Perhaps it was your first home away from home. You took part in many activities on this campus beginning fall quarter . . .

Freshman Camp in September meant boating on Flathead, sessions with student counselors, and the first taste of "College."

FALL QUARTER

From Freshman Camp to the campus and the dorm, Babble Reber began the trek to Corbin Hall with her arms full of clothes.

First on the agenda was Orientation Week, begun with the President's Reception in the Yellowstone Room of the Lodge.

Dr. Gordon Castle introduces parents and students to the new MSU president and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Newsbourn.

Much time and hard work was required to plan the program for Orientation Week. Members of the committee appointed by Mather Board were Duane Adams, Diana Squires, Ken Fordik, Donnie A. G. L., chairman, Jane Borden, Ann Kolbe, and Jerry Agen.

Faculty members portrayed various aspects of University Life. Dr. Gilbert introduces ballist student, Tom Monahan, while Mrs. Dew (Mortar Board), Mrs. Schuster (Satie Hawkins), Mr. Jorgenson (Sentinel), Mr. Banksen (Army ROTC), Mr. McGinnis (an alumn), Mr. Sims (Speaker), Mr. Roberts (Basketball), Mr. Armour (law), and Mr. Fodder (Gardner) look on.

Freshman, Chuck Elkinton, played his guitar and sang for the Variety Show.

Miss MSU 1939, Pam Jo Shaw, spoke to a Jitney Party group in Craig Hall.

Three of the many activities of Orientation Week: the Faculty-Freshman Variety Show, the Jitney Party and registration in the Field House.

Jean Davis, Cathy Spittler, and Linda Scott get acquainted with each other and the campus.

Beanes, photos, and white wash were three requirements for entering freshmen.

Mr. Catlin had an open season on University students.

"OLD COLLEGE CHUMS"

After painting the M. trash were fixed, gathered, and pleased that Orientation duties were finally over.

Fall quarter activities, such as rush and the Foresters' Convo and Ball broke the hours of studying in the library.

A different angle on studying — Penny Leach and Dorothy McLean practice in the Music Building for a Monday afternoon concert.

The T.V. Studio was another busy place. One group of performers presented by MSU TV students was the Cuckoos.

Varsity football assistant quarterback looks to the lines of men.

Football and SOS's —
MSU after school pastimes.

Intramural football brought an accident to at least one. Mrs. Herr watches while ambulance attendants hurry to get one of her eldest residents to the hospital.

A popular MSU tradition, with SOS (Singing On the Steps) at Mayo Hall, with Spurs and Post Patrol in charge.

Homecoming was an exciting event, especially for Cotton and Craig Hall. Their float won first place.

The parade was led by the Treasure State Band and majorettes.

Homecoming weekend brought many alums for the parade, game, and reunion.

In spite of a roaring pep rally the night before, and alum cheers at the game, the Grizzlies lost.

Among the big-name groups brought to the campus by ASSMU was the Martin Denny aggregation.

On week-ends there was always time for dances and entertainment.

New Bear Paws were tapped at an SCS in time for them to help the Sports sponsor the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Entertainment at the dance included the Coquette (Karen Upshaw, Carol Nelson, Betty Lammfield, Diane Rayer, Brenda Blodie, and Kathy Johnson) in gummy sacks, of course.

As Christmas drew near the women's living groups circled for the men and decorated for Christmas functions.

The end of fall quarter also drew closer. Students such as Ellen Strommen (right) hurried to finish projects and revision for final exams.

WINTER QUARTER

Winter quarter began with registration in the Lodge. After registering ski enthusiasts packed up their equipment and headed for Big Mountain and Ski Weekend.

After a two-week absence, the Grizzly Guide was returned to campus by Phi Kappa Phi. Carl Ward, PKP vice-president, with a copy of the guide to Ray Dumas.

Winter quarter proved to be a busy one for AWS. At the AWS style show Suzy Cook and other models showed what to wear on campus or to formal functions, such as the popular Night Club Dance.

The weatherman helped another AWS activity, providing more than enough snow and cold weather for Sigma Kappa and Elrod to win the snow sculpture contest. It also provided a lovely view on the way to the Snow Week-end Dance.

Cold climate and wool are naturals together, so it was no great surprise when Patti Jo Shaw from cold Montana won the national competition for Miss Wool.

Rise Stevens is pictured at a post-Community concert reception with Irving Loeber, Jane Horton, Ed Rose, Stan Tiffany, Doris Adams, and ticket sale chairmen, Joe McFarlane and Ruth James.

There was cultural entertainment all year long with the presentation of the Community Concerts, dramatic productions, music series and visiting lecturers. Even the Spars entertained with their Valentine Spur-O-Grains.

A popular MSU activity was Laying-Down, be it the bridge, chess or conversation.

Eileen Westgarth was one of the many who sold various Spur-O-Grains with Valentine messages.

The University Theater was the scene of "A Streetcar Named Desire," presented by the touring MSC Drama Club.

Much time was spent on extra-curricular activities, but these were only one part of the balanced MSU program of study and relaxation, and many activities were devoted to study purposes. The Law School asked students to participate in practice trials, and the Friends of the Library was organized to help supplement library holdings.

To help celebrate Alaska's entry into the Union, the Food Service, with the aid of Alaskan, Lodi Garcia, presented some dough parades to Lodi patrons.

Students, such as Tony Ayta (right), were busier than ever in classes and laboratories.

The end of winter quarter brought the Newman Club's Mardi Gras Dance, furious debates about ROTC and athletics, and the Red Cross blood drive.

Sharon Armstrong helped the Thetas sell Suzie Frazelle, who played slave for a day.

After debates among Kappa readers as to the advisability of compulsory ROTC and athletics, an Athletic Club was organized and progressed very well.

One last activity of winter quarter—the Red Cross blood drive, and then on to final exams. Filled with one less pint of blood and one quarter more of information.

Mary Ellen McAvoy gives Soema Stinae a good treat, while Carolyn Ruth, Jean Christensen and Diana Allison drool.

SPRING QUARTER

Spring quarter arrived at last, and brought with it a hectic one-day registration in the Lodge, sunbathers galore, an almost empty library and classes outside on the lawn or on the side of Mount Sentinel.

Harbingers of spring were the high school students who arrived from every part of the state to participate in University sponsored activities. First it was the State Science Fair. Then the Music Festival brought competitors for awards and scholarships, who witnessed the initial performance of Oklahoma.

Entertainment was never hard to find if nothing else was happening. The TV in the lodge always had Your Dear on hand to help pass the time.

Ron Bottcher, Dad, and Byron Christian, Early, named because your dad is dead.

Another spring quarter home—being chosen Military Ball Queen. Jerry Heller holds the sash for Queen Julie Brisson, while Mary Garrison, Sharol Greenup, 1959 Queen Carol Anthony, runner-up Marth McGinnis, Sharon Sayre and Warren Dren, Army ROTC, watch approvingly.

Former were moved to make way for the new Law School and Health-Science Buildings which were begun this year.

Spring quarter saw construction begin on new MSU buildings.

Foresters took to the woods for Spring Camp while interested students (pictured with Mr. Pantzer) went to Flathead Lake for a week-end of reflection and discussion at Leadership Camp.

Olav Larsson was one of the many readers of the Kaimin.

Spring quarter is always active, and a Kaimin is as necessary as a score card at an athletic event.

Some of the activities included the Northwestern Speech Tournament held in the L.A. Building, national headquarters for Tau Kappa Alpha speech honorary. A very popular spring activity was WUS Week with its roof-sitting, Chinese auction, and ugly couple contest.

The Aquanoid pageant was a high-light of the quarter with its colorful and professional water ballets.

Baseball became the sport for the intramural teams, while baseball, track, and spring football were the rule of the day for varsity athletes.

ASMSU election time rolled around and the lodge was gaudily decorated with posters of every size, shape and color imaginable

When the smoke of election battle cleared things returned to normal. Paul Ulrich took over the directing of Central Board activities while Jerry Agen continued working with his greatly improved Public Relations Committee.

Choices also had to be made for editors of the various campus publications. Roll Olson, pictured with energetic journalist, Judy McVey, became editor of the Kalman, while Gloria Esdally received the appointment of Sentinel editor.

Interscholastic brought another influx of high school students, who watched track and field events, boxers such as Mike McGiboney at the "M" Club Boxing Matches, and the Newman Club Songfest, which the Delta Delta Delta's ("I Enjoy Being a Girl") and the Sigma Chi's ("Around the World in 40 Days") won.

Linda Heavers reserves her place from Spurring in Gloria Bunnely, while Jennie Erickson smiles merrily.

Terry Carpenter, outgoing president, places the Mortar Board on Terry Stephenson, incoming president.

High point of the end of the year was the tapping of new Spurs, Mortar Boards and Silent Sentinels at the Interscholastic and Graduation SOS's.

Gary Desawanger led present and former Silent Sentinels in paying tribute to Earl Miller on the eve of his retirement both as an MRU professor and as Silent Sentinel advisor.

Graduation exercises brought the end of the school year. Dr. Harry K. Newburn was installed as the tenth president of Montana State University. Commissions were presented, degrees conferred, and seniors said a last good-bye to MSU.

Kelli Wood receives his diploma from President Newburn.

DEDICATION

The staff of Montana State University is composed of men and women who do a great deal of work, but receive very little recognition. The jobs that they do are important to both the faculty and the student body. They care for the buildings and grounds, cook our food, oversee our finances, take care of correspondence, watch over the library and even print the Kaimosi and Sentinel. To the members of the MSU staff—from secretaries to janitors and from cooks to printers and pressmen, the 1960 Sentinel is gratefully dedicated.

PRESIDENT OF MSU

To the students of Montana State University:

It is a pleasure to have this opportunity of expressing briefly greetings to the students and commenting upon our first year here at Montana State University. Our major reaction is a pleasant one. We like Montana and believe that the University has a great opportunity to serve the people of the State by providing a rich and stimulating environment for the qualified young people of the Commonwealth who desire an education and who are prepared to put forth the necessary effort to that end. We hope another year our schedule will be somewhat more flexible so that we may take greater advantage of the opportunity to become better acquainted with the fine students and faculty working here on the campus.

H. K. NEWBURN
President

IN MEMORIAM

BRUCE WARREN MARKELL

Bruce Markell was a freshman student from Caldwell, New Jersey and a member of Theta Chi fraternity. A river accident on the Blackfoot in June, 1960 was the cause of his death.

ROBERT M. TAYLOR

Junior forestry student, Robert Taylor from Missouri, died February, 1960.

IRENE M. SAMMONS

Mrs. Sammons, who was from Boston, Massachusetts, received her B.A. from MSU, and was doing graduate work in botany at the time of her death.

JAMES B. SAMMONS

Mr. Sammons was from Lewistown and received his B.S. from MSU. He was doing graduate work in the field of wildlife technology. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sammons were killed in an automobile accident in November, 1959.

ETHEL MAY (MAIZIE) NICHOLS

Maizie Nichols, a freshman student from Roundbay and a member of Sigma Kappa society, died in St. Patrick's Hospital in May, 1960.

PROFESSOR ELMER SMITH

Prof. Smith was born January 23, 1909 at St. Anthony, Idaho. He graduated and obtained a master of science degree in anthropology from the University of Utah. He held posts at Snow College, Ephraim, Utah, and at the Universities of Utah, Oregon and Washington. He was a visiting associate professor in the MSU Anthropology Department from February until his death May 1, 1960. As a ranking expert in the field of race relations he had written several textbooks on anthropology. Prof. Smith was a member of Phi Kappa Phi scholastic honorary, Sigma Xi science honorary, Alpha Kappa Delta, an honor sociological society, and was a fellow in the American Anthropological Association.

DR. CHARLES W. WATERS

Dr. Waters was born at Okeeta, Kansas, December 7, 1894. He received his bachelor of literature and bachelor of science at Berea College, Kentucky; his masters in botany at Ohio State University and was graduated from the University of Michigan with a Ph.D. in forest pathology. He served as an instructor at Syracuse University, at the University of Michigan, and as an assistant professor at Miami University. He was a member of the MSU botany staff from 1926 until his death, January 21, 1960. Dr. Waters was a member of the Phytopathology Society, Society of Foresters, Northwest Scientific Association, and the Montana Academy of Sciences.

"It seems in the course of things not to realize what resources we have until they are gone. So on this occasion we have been made aware that this country is really in the very fine position that man possesses."

Maize Morris

"Dr. Waters was first of all a teacher. He was warm in his approach to students and sympathetic with their problems. His lecture preparation was always thorough. Even after years of teaching, he gave each lecture a fresh organization and always had the famous touch."

THE MATCHMAKER

Martha McGinnis, Brinton Markle, Eileen Gallagher and Chuck Hansen rehearse "The Matchmaker," a hit held over from the Summer Theater. This delightful Broadway comedy, fun for the cast, director and audience was presented on campus in early fall and was later taken on a tour of western Montana.

MASQUER THEATER

The Masquer Theater completed its third year of performances in the round. Of major importance was the rising interest in theatrical work, particularly in the field of original playwriting. Marge Shjello and Diane Kenyon are among the many students whose performances enhanced Masquer productions.

THE CONCEPTION

An original one-act play "The Conception" by Jean Metteson views life in a mental hospital. The prevailing question concerns the relativity of sanity in a world of insanity. Among members of the cast were Wayne Finney, Marge Shjello, Diane Kenyon, Elsie Halford and Suzy Cook.

THE DUMMY

THE SPORT OF KINGS

"The Sport of Kings," written and directed by Bill McKinnon, was a play to be watched and enjoyed. Wayne Veeneman, who played the bum, kept the audience constantly aware of the humorous aspect of the play.

"The Dummy," written by Brinton Markle and directed by Sara Grey, gave the view of life on the water front and of the character and will of weak and lost people who seek a leader. Mike Fallon gave a performance not usually expected from a college performer in his interpretation of Sena.

HOPE CHEST

Under the Masquer direction of Cordelia Brown, the "Hope Chest" told the story of a lost wife trying to find hope and happiness by means of an old chest. Eileen Gallagher portrayed the submissive middle-aged wife whose desire for peace is threatened by her tyrannical husband, Brinton Markle.

Dorothy Sissonson, Wayne Finney, Desiree Collette, Dan Bieri, Corinne Brown, Sara Grey, Frank Roberts, and Suzy Cook in a scene from "The Cherry Orchard".

THE CHERRY ORCHARD

Anton Chekhov in "The Cherry Orchard" created an atmosphere of varying moods, whose sharp contrasts make up the main aspects of the drama. The emotional impracticability of the members of a family of high rank, their inability to cope with the changing order, contrast with the practical, realistic and perhaps uncouth behavior of the new rising class. The Montana Masquers' decision to produce Chekhov's masterpiece on the eve of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of this great dramatist, represented another attempt by Americans to bring Russian life into better perspective.

Corinne Brown prepares for her outstanding performance as Madame Ranevsky.

CAST

The General, played by Dan Rhea, brings the audience into the atmosphere of the play and reveals some of his personal philosophy.

Douglas Barkess _____ Director
 Richard Henry Jones _____ Designer and Technical Director

Erin Marks, Sue Howard, and Mike Fallon in their roles as "just Freddie," and Beulah and Homer Mousworth.

In the presence of the Archbishop (Donald Jones) the Spy (Bill Kearns) renounces his life of evil in an Adamic performance played to truth on his knees.

ROMANOFF and JULIET

In the time an embassy (left) Follia Hardison and Kirk Bole argue matters while downstairs Brian Riddle, Bruce Buckingham and Bill Keenan talk about the political situation.
Across the street in Juliet's room the American embassy Marlin McGinnis posers the question of love and international relations, while Brent Markle, Sue Howard and Mike Fallon discuss the price of deep freezers.

Peter Ustinov's quiet, genial and warm-hearted satire deals with the violent subject of American-Russian snarling relationships. The action occurs in "the smallest country in Europe" where the Russian and American ambassadors compete with each other while their children fall in love. The irony of the play is complete when the American ambassador knows that the Russians know the American code and the Russian Ambassador knows that the Americans know that the Russians know the American code, etc., etc., etc.

Love thoughts over politics bringing American Juliet (Marlin McGinnis) and Russian Ivan Bogoslov (Kirk Bole) together.

MADRIGAL SINGERS

The Madrigal Singers were formed as a group two years ago. Their musical selections are from the 16th and 17th centuries and they are often accompanied by instruments of that era. The group is conducted by Miss Jane Hevener.

SOPRANOS: Janet Amos, LaDonna Appelhaus, Ann Avery, Judy Fisher
ALTOS: Donna Koser, Patricia McClain, Betty Stephenson, Virginia Wolfe
TENORS: Fred Munkawer, Benny Schmitt, David Stegmiller, Raymond Young
BASSES: William Forrest, Michael Jenkins, Larry Luke, James Stogmiller

The Department of Music is perhaps one of the most "performing" departments on campus. Throughout the year outstanding students and faculty members presented musical recitals. Choral Union, the University Choir, and the Madrigal Singers combined their talents to present the Annual Christmas Concert. The Chamber Band and the Treasure State Band united to give their winter concert later in the school year. Each week outstanding students were heard on the Missoula radio program, Concert Hall. Through the efforts of the Music Department the annual Music Meet of high school students was held. Other music activities were the Nite Club Dance, Oklahoma, participation of the choral groups and the Symphonette with the Missoula Civic Symphony in the presentation of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, the University Music Series and the Opera Workshop.

JUBILEERS

The voices of these twenty men and women comprise "Montana's finest voices," the Jubileers. For the fourteenth year this group provided entertainment for the campus, community and the state. The Jubileers are under the direction of Joseph Mussulman.

Norman Preston and Sandra Swank in the midst of the talented children's ballet group.

Members of the MSU Ballet Theater were particularly busy this year. Long hours of preparation and practice were required for dancing roles in Oklahoma and later in the fourth annual Evening of Ballet. Marnie Cooper's brilliant choreography once again showed the talent of her ballet troupe, as they presented Hans Christian Andersen's "The Ugly Duckling," and Douglas Bankson's two works, "The Waterwitch," and "Private Eye, Mr. Magee."

Principle dancers in the Ballet Theater. (l. Willis, Martin Sanford, Stan Meyer, Carl Hashinski, Norman Preston, Louis Gary, James Frank, Stan Hinton, Penny Hase, and Phil Desigherty. On shoulders: Sandra Swank and Nancy Sencchal.

Jim Polk in a non-dancing role portrayed the delightful and hilarious Mr. Magee, while Marta Sanford was the girl hood and Sandra Swank played Magee's girl Friday.

BALLET THEATER

One of the most effective performances of the evening was by Norman Preston, who played the Waterswitch. Marnie Cooper took the female lead of Sarahand, while Louis Garcia played her sweetheart, Dan.

The versatile troupe moved easily from Oklahoma to the final Evening of Ballet recitals.

The Art Department brought exhibits from the University of Alberta, prints of Holland artists, a creative stitchery display from the seventh grade in a Portland, Oregon school and many other exhibitions to MSU. The Art Department also sponsored an interscholastic high school art display.

Work of the faculty and students was again put on sale at the bidge. The faculty proceeds went to the art department for needed art equipment and art scholarships.

CENTRAL BOARD

The ASMSU office was the scene of much activity as the officers organized student affairs into smooth working order. With cooperation of Central Board, the officers enlarged and improved the Public Relations program. Central Board was responsible for the largest budget in history, appropriating to athletics and student organizations about $150,000. Because of the enlarged budget CB was able to provide much outside entertainment: Martin Denny and Tommy Dorsey, as well as free mixers and parties. Several committees excelled, including Homecoming Committee, which with new type of queen selection succeeded in organizing one of the best Homecoming weekends ever. Publicity Committee also was a very successful committee. One of CB's last activities was the production of the all-school show, Oklahoma, which, with Dave Brownman as business manager, turned out to be profitable as well as enjoyable. During the year CB approved an affidavit disclaiming the National Defense Scholarship loyalty oath, backed President Newburn's policy for reduced athletic scholarships and succeeded in gaining sufficient support for the re-incorporation of the student store.

Twice over and these important voices on the 1959-60 Central Board were Professor Albert Stone, faculty representative, Dean Andy Cogswell, administrative representative, and Dr. Walter Brown, faculty representative.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Jerry Metcalf, elected Judicial Council chairman in spring, 1959, resigned at the end of fall quarter. Helen Boy, succeeded by Bill Connors, finished the term as chairman.

Jerry Metcalf

Judicial Council's primary duty is to recommend to the Dean's office proper action on cases concerning students who have violated University rules. The Council has been a source of much campus discussion since its formation. During spring quarter, 1959, Judicial Council formulated a policy to facilitate its operations. The goal of the council is to help those students charged with violating campus rules, rather than blindly meting out punishment. Scholarship probation, rather than social pro became the remedy in several cases.

First row: Shirley Hall, Karen Parkin, Jerry Metcalf, Keith Wilson, Janet Wilcox, Victor Wiles
Second row: Bob Connors, Bill Greenwall, Hank Abbotts, Madeline Meyer, Ed Lund

During last quarter Budget and Finance committee, under the chairmanship, Howard Hansen, defined system which enabled Capital Board and MSU students to keep track of the big student budget. The routine duties of preparing the proposed budget of ASMSU income and handling resolutions of committees and organizations were also accomplished.

BUDGET AND FINANCE

STORE BOARD

The five members of Store Board were elected from the student body as a whole. With the assistance of five faculty members and two Central Board delegates, these hard workers, after much sweat and many tears, drafted the Articles of Re-Incorporation of the Student Store. This document gives members of ASMSU control of the Ross Store.

Robert Aron, Ray Jacobs, Diane Mossey, Virginia Bagland, Chairman. Not present: John Carlson.

Traditions Board attempted to revive the traditions of MSU, which are inter-woven into campus life. T-Bears sang over the Cross-Cross to Haze-son fall quarter and promoted a pep rally held before the homecoming game. Each time a cheerleader or mini-pony was needed, it was the board's duty to select the ones who could draw the loudest cheer from the grandstand fans.

First row: Ben Simon, chairman, Judy King, Denise Leary, Sally Thompson, Peggy Calvin, Mary Lynn Olson, Sonja Scholze, Carlo Rimer, Glenna Nelson.

TRADITIONS BOARD

ACTIVITIES BOARD

First row: John Keebs, chairman, Barbara Wheeler, Marlene Kolesar, Diane Andersen, Jane Thomas.
Second row: Sharon Blazek, Bob Oliver, Pat McLain, Steve Leslie, John Joseph, Ernie Ratzburg, Buzz Rasmussen, Edjo Noel, Ann Barthelt.

During winter quarter the Activities Committee named seven sub-committees and became Activities Board. The beach parties at the new pool and the Homecoming Dance were two functions that the committee handled during fall quarter. The Jimmy Dorsey Band and the Martin Lenny group were featured on campus via the committee and a box of five hundred dollars. Several free student mixers were held throughout the year. Barbara Wheeler was appointed Activities Director in charge of coordinating student activities and organizing the Activities Room in the Lodge.

First row: Kathy Joseph, chairman; Robert Jo Kober, Marcia McDonald, Myra Schultz, Ray Obergren.

ELECTIONS COMMITTEE

After adding two new voting precincts last year, one in the Forestry Building and the other in the Bus-Ad Building, Elections Committee began this year, under chairman Kathy Joseph with the election of Promman CH representatives. The bulk of this year's work was finished by a committee with slightly changed membership and a new chairman, Barbara Lee, when Kathy transferred to West Texas at the end of fall quarter.

WUS COMMITTEE

During spring quarter, WUS (World University Service) Committee planned and directed its annual fundraising campaign. Such stages as the Chinese auction and the daily fair contest were part of the routine to which all Chinese and ugly-people looked forward.

First row: Betty Hall, chairman, Joyce Zeller, Linda Smith, Karen Fowler, Jan McFarlane.
Second row: Sue Perks, Bobbi Miller, Helen Wertz, Marcia Holmes, Penny Town, Elaine Huber.

First row: Mary Huggins, Terry Rault, Karen Fowler, Ernie Gehring, Jack Griffin, and Helen Lee and Brad Dumbala, co-chairmen.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE

To plan three days of homecoming activity was the committee's problem. One lovely queen plus one royal court smothered out many sorry wrinkles. The stout and faithful fans were guided with yelling, although unable to push the Cavalier to a victory. Nevertheless, the committee's portion of the celebration was a great success.

PLANNING BOARD

Long-range planning concerning the structure of student government was the primary responsibility of the Planning Committee. Fall quarter this committee compiled a list of the organizations included in ASMSU.

Bob Means, Betty Leimhold, Dennis Myers, Don Harkin, chairmen, Doug Chaffey, Linda Tracy, Linda Harrison, Carol Cooper, Sandra Van Blatten

VISITING LECTURERS COMMITTEE

Visiting Lecturers Committee arranged for distinguished speakers to appear on campus. Among the activities this year were a convocation to introduce President Newbarn to the student body and the presentation of U. Northcott Parkinson, author of Parkinson's Law.

LEADERSHIP CAMP COMMITTEE

Leadership Camp, May 13-15, at Flathead Lake Lodge was the place where campus leaders met to discuss campus problems. The committee planned and directed each day's schedule, which included lunch sessions, faculty speakers, and recreation.

First row: Sharon Beattie, Gayle Hagaman, Charles Lam, chairman, Carolyn Butty, Kay Lawton. Second row: John Chinoke, Bill Cain, Don Bares, Jean Davis, Anne Stimples, David Sule, Pat McDonald.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS COMMITTEE

The objective of the International Students Committee is to develop a better relationship between foreign and American students at MSU.

Sitting: Kay Ferris, Kitty Gibson, Virginia Hagland, chairman, Deanne Nordeen, Carol Cooper. Standing: Nancy Brown, Don Lamb, Ruth James.

Felicio Hardison, chairman, Teddy Routs, Elaine Zipperman, Sharon East

PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The Secretarial Committee helped in assuring smooth coordination of the Public Relations program.

Jerry Aron, chairman

The objective of the Public Relations Committee, a newly-formed Division of Student government, is to inform the citizens of Montana about MSU, its accomplishments, goals, traditions, and scholastic endeavors. This department includes three subordinate committees. Through Campus Visitation Committee, visitors are introduced to the campus. HomeTown News Committee covers the activities of students and reports to the hometown newspapers. Alumni Relations Committee acts as a liaison between the student body and the Alumni Association.

CAMPUS VISITIONS

HOME TOWN NEWS

ALUMNI RELATIONS

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Donig Grimm composed a notebook about his committee's work to be used for future reference. He and other members did an excellent job on promotion of ASMSU activities, such as, Martin Denny, Bozeman train, Beach Parties, Mixers, and the all-school show, Oklahoma!

Seated: Pat Howell, Vivian Lisotte, Helen Dwellie, Karen Murdoch, Helen Lewis
Standing: Russ Sands, Donig Grimm, chairman, Barbara Mittel

First row: Mary Lou Montague, chairman, Joan Hedlund
Second row: Barbara Bell, Patricia Serafino, Sharon LaBar, Lucy Bruggeman, Carrie Knutson, Regina Gilman

M BOOK COMMITTEE

A help to confused frosh is the M Book, which attempts to acquaint the new student with MSU. It contains features from how to study a vocabulary list to lyrics of the school songs and a map of the Campus. This year, under the chairmanship of Mary Lou Montague, the book was enlarged and revised.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

Publications Board makes recommendations for key positions on the Kalama, Sentinel and Venture staffs to Central Board. Recommending is perhaps its major function, although checking on the operations of these three student publications follows staff selection.

First row: George Roberts, Kate Dunn, Denny Wagner, Judy Williams, Zena Beth McGlashan, Tom Mongan, chairman
Second row: Mr. Dugan, advisor, Jean Tate, Margo Murphy, Frank Walsh

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

The Associated Women Students are governed by a board composed of delegates from each living group. The board formulates and enforces rules concerning social standards, campus attire, and hours. Violations can lead to the well-known "camps." The officers are chosen at yearly elections. This year the Missoula girls living at home were organized under the chairmanship of Julie Dufresne and handled the 1968 Big-Little Sister program. Social events sponsored by AWS included three fashion shows, Snow Weekend, Big-Little Sister tea, Miss MSU contest and the Lantern Parade.

Seated: Donna Arnst, vice-president, Sally Harris, president
Standing: Jackie Thomas, secretary, Karen Forkin, treasurer

First row: Tookie Casanoli, Josh Naylor, Julie McIntyre, Betty Hall
Second row: Ruth James, Penny Gump, Janet Wynn, Annette Smith, Matt, Sanford, Ann Shipley, Norma Frank, Jamie Hughes, Pat Williams, Diana Ruble

David Kubaeh, Editor

John Schwartz, Faculty Advisor

VENTURE

Venture operated on a tight budget this year. The literary magazine, nevertheless supplied the student body at the end of every quarter with a variety of articles, short stories and poetry. The quarters in Jimbo Hall provided an arty atmosphere for the editing and organizing of the publication. Central Board, by enlarging the appropriation for Venture, enabled the publication to become nearly completely supported by the student body.

Venture staff: Juliet Deschamps, Jim Polk, Betty Hawkins, Autumn Kennedy, Mary Morris, Terry Carpenter, Billie McPherson, Paul Learner, Allen Goddard.

Editor John Bennett (J.B.) was the master make-up man who organized the first horizontal Kaimin. Bennett spent much time on the oval frame to solve the walking-on-the-air problem.

In 1950 the Kaimin (meaning "written word") covered such major news events as the installation of a new University president, and the naming of athletic and activity fees. In addition, it kept a constant watchful eye on the student government. Covering such touchy subjects as English department explosions, the Kaimin's consistent objective was to find and to report the truth.

"OUR WARRIORS BOLD"

KAIMIN

Judith Blakely, or "Blake," was the efficient business manager with the personality to keep all the advertisers pleased, not to mention the salesmen.

As News Editor, Judy King assigned reporters to specific beats and worked to keep up-to-date news in the paper.

Associate editor Judy McVey worked on the desk, put out Friday's eight-page editions, wrote a Friday column, expanded the feature exchange system, and wrote dramatic reviews.

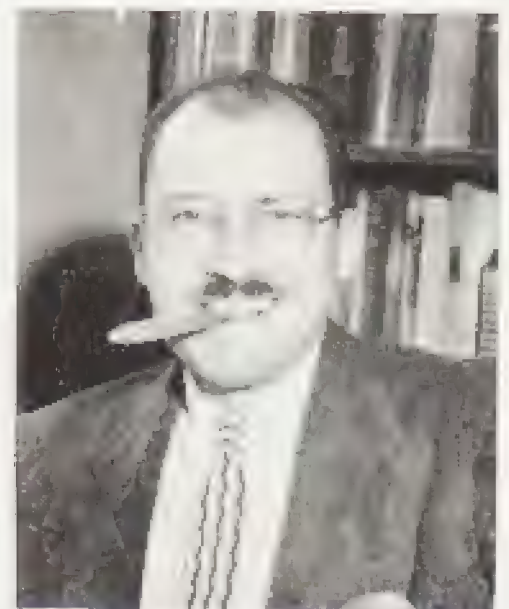

Always on hand with his camera, Rolf Olson provided many newsworthy pictures for this year's Kamin.

Editing the sports page and writing his column, "Charles's Chaser," kept Charles Hoel busy at the Kamin office.

Kamin journalists huddle around the four-sided shaped desk, to see the paper put to rest—or, as they would say, to see it "lucked up on the Waltzing Matilda."

As staff adviser, Mr. Dugan managed to keep smiling and somehow, to ward off others. Mr. Dugan is a professor of advertising in the Journalism School.

Jane Barden, editor, developed among the staff members a chain of command to assure communication between the editor, the associate editors, and the rest of the staff. Worried that pictures and copy would not be done in time to meet the deadline and that the book would not reach the students at the beginning of fall quarter, Jane spent many hours planning, supervising and putting the final touches on the 1960 Sentinel.

SENTINEL

Donna Artist, business manager, was successful in obtaining the proposed enlarged budget. Efficiency was her motto and she made her demands known when dealing with the photographer and the field house.

To facilitate the annual job of recording the year's school activities in pictures and words, ASMSU generously appropriated more money to the 1960 Sentinel. With this enlarged budget, more colored pages and a fine new cover were added. The year seemed long with the staff distributing the 1959 Sentinel in January. Usual photographer troubles plagued harried staff members when either photographer, subjects, or both did not show up at scheduled times.

Although the queens would not always cooperate and the weatherman did not help her get those "outside shots," Perry Layman succeeded in completing the Day-after, Athletic, and Senior Sections.

Larry Pagett completed his Administration Section early, but he found coordination of organizations and the photographer more difficult. Class and Fine Arts were other sections in his care.

The original deadline for the Student Government Section was Thanksgiving, but Dorothy McBride found that the work ran into spring quarter. Greeks and other living groups presented another problem that was finally solved. Dorothy was also in charge of the Faculty Section.

Indispensable to the staff was Whitely McGill, silent and hard-working assistant in the photo lab. Ken Meek, photography editor, was in charge of the many duties of a Sentinel photographer along with editing the Forestry Kamin. Lack of time was a problem, but easily taking everything in his stride Ken did an admirable job.

Always there with a friendly smile, priceless advice and guidance, and much assistance in the area of picture taking and dark room work, Cyrtle Van Duser served a busy year as Hamtown News Service director and Sentinel advisor.

A regular Friday afternoon occurrence was the Sentinel staff meeting. Here at a meeting early in the year, the editor, business manager and associates gather to make plans for the 1950 Sentinel.

Larry Juoffs (left) started his Fine Arts section, but had to give it up to take over for Donna when she became ill and later to assume his duties as business manager of the Boyl Sentinel. Jim Weiler very efficiently finished his Administration section early in the year. Gayle Hagerman was section editor for the Living Groups and Pat Serafine edited the Athletic section.

Pat McClain and Betty Lenthold, who were in charge of Organizations, are pictured with Gloria Lindsey and her assistant, Myra Shultz, who managed the newly enlarged Faculty section.

"OUR HEARTS TO MEMORIES CLING"

Male freshmen members of the staff in charge of the Student Government section were Russ Hornstad and Glen Ackelson. Sara Blackburn managed the class sections.

"We'll do it my way or not at all!" In spite of incidents such as this, the staff spent a riotous, if not hectic year in the office upstairs over the Radio-TV Center. Miraculously there was more voluntary help than ever before and everyone completed his section before taking off for summer vacation. Jane, Norma Fries, editor of the school history section, Penny and Larry, Jim Weiler, Administration editor, Bob Dismont, Fine Arts editor, and Dorothy,

NEWMAN CLUB

OFFICERS

President	James D. Johnson
Vice-president	Elaine Welch
Secretary	Barbara Lee

Newman Club is the religious organization for students of the Roman Catholic faith. It is one of the most active groups on campus. Students of the Club sponsored the Mardi Gras dance (above) and also the Inter-scholastic Newman Club singfest.

Second place winners in the Newman Club contest were Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Seated: Penny Lorenz, Nola Terentoff, Mrs. Bartholomew, spouse, Rena Tross, Bert Croft.
 Second row: Rev. Hugh Herbert, Dick Gendler, Karin Renwick, Laura Wolverton, Kay Gamber, Betty Lathold, Jane Wolverton, Judy Williams, Jean Schlicht.

WESLEY

MSU's Methodist students could become members of the Wesley group. Meetings with other religious organizations, panels on various aspects of the church, and discussions about a possible Wesley House were all part of the agenda for this year.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

LSA affairs were centered in the LSA House on University Avenue. As friendly as the Lutheran students, the LSA House was always open and there was coffee every afternoon.

First row: Buzz Remital, Len Moon, Harold Olson, Unidentified, Jerry Bault, Roger Stevens.
 Second row: Lana Nelson, Judith Zarske, Beth Petaja, Jean Anderson, Karen Brodner, Florence Skene-land, Beth Lawler, Mary Monroe, Sally Miller, Unidentified, Julie Ruffens, Jean Mattson, Pastor Al Mattson.
 Third row: Dick Sayer, Tom Longan, Howie Farvel, Trudi Fellingius, Glen Aasmun, Susan Cutler, Ed Miller, Wilson Huang, Ted Lindgren.

The Student Education Association is a professional teaching organization on the college level. Officers for the year were David Lindberg, president, Gail Guntermann, vice-president, Gloria Eudaly, secretary, and Henry Oldenburg, treasurer.

Seated: Mr. Watson, Betty Deed, Fred Hessemer, Henry Oldenburg, Allan Jeska, Mary Petun, Mr. Jay.
 Seated: Deanna Gay, Norma Collins, Clara Mohland, Shirley Hardy, Gloria Eudaly.

Lying on the floor: Liz Mortimer, Linda Nelson, Zena McHughen, Nadine Powers, Dixie Dawson, Dorothy Thomas, Sheri Kantala, Mary Lou Montague, Lee Arnold, Don White.
 Kneeling on the floor: Marilyn Boward, Helen Guthrie, Jeff Whitten, Judy McCaffery, Leon Billings, Carol Anthony, Jan Cassator.
 Standing on the floor: Roxanne Shelton, Karen Schirm, Jan Wilkins, Unidentified, Dawn DeGree, Karen Perkins, Janet Hall, Eyle Overaker, Jane Berden, Elaine Welch, Gretchen Meyer, Tony Buzzetti.
 Standing on chairs: Jerry Mescall, Bob Cannote, Ed Wasek, and two unidentified Dregs.

KAMS and DREGS

Karen Schirm and Tom Agamenon led the campus practical joke association as presidents during the year. The group planned to wear uniforms on Fridays and cheer at all football games, but the best laid plans of Kams and Dregs often went astray.

MONTANA FORUM

Seated: Clint Grimes, Dr. Brownstein, Jim Park, Carol Greer, Patti Jo Shaw, Terry Stephenson, Terry Carpenter, Unidentified, Suzie Day, Judith Blackely, Zena McHughen, Mrs. Kuhn, Jane Berden, Clint Jolly, Paul Hiron.
 Standing: Tom Hance, Tom Mongar, Dr. Stone, Dr. Fiedler, Dr. Jepperson, Mr. Dugan, Ed Hise (ex-officio), Mrs. Schuster.

The campus discussion group met every Friday at noon and milled over problems such as the U2 incident and the Caryl Chessman case. Tom Mongar presided at the meetings and Terry Stephenson served as secretary-treasurer.

SKI CLUB

The MSU Ski Club promotes interest in skiing through its sponsorship of Ski Week-end. Membership is open to any University student and often brings rewards; at right, Rudy Ruana receives his ski award from Dr. Lory at the Awards Convoc.

OFFICERS

President	Lizette Bennett
Vice-president	Joe Huber
Secretary-treasurer	Jim Pannell
Ski Week-end Chairman	John Coffin

Seated: Helen Trippet, Carol Anthony, Lorrinda Smith, Kay Dubay, Marilyn Peterson, Joan Elmer.
 Second row: Russ Ekers, Julie Bruns, Judy Hirst, Shirley Handy, Arnie Maxwell, Marcia Meagher, Isabelle Welch.
 Mrs. Bruns, advisor, Diane Dyer.
 Back row: Corrie Laqua, Carol Spaulding, Dawn Drummond, Carla Moore, Martha Olson, Pat Williams, Betty Hall.
 Frances Ashcraft, Jean Davis, Miss Etheridge, advisor.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The purpose of the Home Ec Club is to further supplement classwork and bring Home Ec students together. Officers were Marilyn Peterson, president; Sue Mechler, vice-president; Marcia Nearman, secretary; Arnie Maxwell, treasurer; Flo Steensland, social chairman; and Helen Trippet, state project chairman.

MONTANA MASQUERS

The Drama honorary sponsored three major productions, several minor shows, an annual tour through Montana, and the Masquer summer theater. Officers were Patti Jo Shaw, president; Suzy Cook, vice-president; Cordie Brown, secretary; Eileen Gallagher, treasurer; and Marith McGinnis, historian.

"Bobo" statuette awards were made to Mrs. Sam Gray, Best Director—one-act plays; Robert McKinnon, Best one-act play — playwriting; Dick Willis, Production Award; Mike Pohlen, Best Actor—Masquer Theater; Sue Howard, Best Actress—University Theater; Jack Upshaw, Best Actor—University Theater (His award is held by Bo Brown, chairman of the Department of Drama); Bill Kearns, Best Supporting Actor—University Theater; Ray Muddmont, Daniel Randsom Achievement Award; Eileen Gallagher, Best Actress—Masquer Theater and Best Supporting Actress—University Theater.

BEAR PAWS

MSU's sophomore men's service honorary led by president Denis Adams, performed the usual University chores with willing enthusiasm, especially when accompanied by their sister organization Spurs.

SPURS

Annette Smith, president of Tacon chapter of the national sophomore women's service honorary, kept the members busy from Orientation Week to graduation. They sponsored the Sadie Hawkins dance with Bear Paw help, sold Spur-o-gram valentines and gave scholarships at the end of the year to two deserving freshmen.

Sharon Dodge, Patricia Bell, Marva Kirby, Karen Lorch, Myrta Eyrely, Louise Johnson, Sandy Van Blaricom, Judi Gessley, Judy McIntyre, Doreen McBride, Ann Higgins, Rossa Welnsornes, Judy Thomas, Sara Rankin, Pat Williams, Penny Lantieri, Gloria Escobar, Inaon, Barbara Williams, junior advisor, Jennine Felt, Jordis Erickson, Diane Moser, Mrs. Stone, advisor, Annette Smith, Ellen Parker, Carol Cooper, Elma Knudsen.

MORTAR BOARD

Members of the national senior women's honorary continued to be of service to MSU during their fourth year of school. This group sold calendars, sponsored Smarty Parties for campus women with top scholarship, and organized the Friends of the Library.

SILENT SENTINEL

As their name suggests, these senior men perform many services for the University in silence. At the graduation SOS they honored retiring faculty member Barly Miller for his many years of service to MSU and to Silent Sentinel.

Front row: Barly Miller, advisor, Cal Christian, Rich Martin, Gary Benwanger, Duane Adams, Robert Turner, advisor.

ATHLETICS

PAT SERAFINE

Editor

The 1959 football season brought with it an unimpeachable aerial defense, a one-win, eight-loss record, and improvement over the luckless '58 season. The Grizzly win over BYU in Provo sent fans at home into happy but unfortunately premature ecstasy.

FOOTBALL

What makes a football player, or any athlete, different from other students? Nothing but long hours in drills and scrimmage during the season, the will to win, an enjoyment of participation, athletic ability and an intangible thing called "heart." His greatest reward comes from a game well-played and the appreciation of an audience.

"AND THE SQUEAL OF THE PIG"

Up in the air! Sure, on the way to another out-of-town game.

Montana Grizzlies jumping over Nebraska at a Christmas holiday game.

BASKETBALL

The Grizzlies began the season well, chalking up "Frosty" Cox's 200th win in the Skyline, but something seemed to go wrong immediately after. The Tips wound up the season with a seven-win, seventeen-loss record. The rivalry with the Bobcats was continued, the Grizzlies losing the first game by one point and winning the second game, 86-71. Dan Balke, one of the Grizzly greats, boosted his collegiate career tally to 1000 points before the season's end.

GRADUATING SENIORS

Vince Ignatowicz. Came to the University in '57 from Pueblo Junior College — long-range shooter, definitely a team man. Finished in '60 with a 7.6 average.

Dan Balda. Grizzly high-point man for the season—16.6 average with over 1050 points scored in his years as a Grizzly, made All-Skyline his junior year.

John Lande. One of MSU's greatest all-around athletes — lettered in football, All-Skyline (two years), basketball and track, will play pro Canadian football.

Active Alpha Phi's moved into a newly remodeled house fall quarter, and then moved out onto the campus. Officers of WRA from the Alpha Phi house were Karen Schirm, president, Jeri Whitten, secretary, and Mary Lou Montague, treasurer. Bucky Egonio captured the coveted position of Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, while Sharol Greenup served as Co-ed Colonel of Angel Flight. Spurs were Jennine Funk, secretary, Gloria Eudaily, and Sandra Van Blaricom. Judy King, a delegate to the Model U.N. also worked hard as Kaimin news editor. Gail Ward, recipient of a Fulbright scholarship was named outstanding senior woman at Matrix Table. Gail also spent a busy senior year as treasurer of Mortar Board, secretary-treasurer of Phi Alpha Theta history honorary, and vice-president of Phi Kappa Phi.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

What is going on behind the brick wall? Activities range from participation in Jubileers—Peggy Calvin, Mary Margaret Boyd and Jarine Landee—to cheerleading. Cheer queen fall quarter, Carol Chakos, and Marva Kirby, winter quarter, led cheerleaders, including Sally Leland, Janet Barcroft, Pat Sauerbier, and Barbara May. Peggy Calvin was a junior sponsor during fall quarter, and Marva Kirby and Carol Anderson were Spurs. Patti Jo Shaw, active in dramatic circles as president of Montana Masquers, was chosen Miss Wool of the United States, to spend her reign touring the United States and France.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

The girls who wear the Kappa key spent an action-packed year. Judith Blakely, delegate to the model United Nations in San Francisco served as business manager of the Kaimin as well as editor of Mortar Board. The Spurs were led by Aunette Smith, president. Other Spurs were Myrna Everly, Sara Rankin, Ann Higham, and Eileen Wengartner. Members of the Tamed Juddlers were Priscilla Lester and Barbara Wheeler. A majority of campus queens claimed Kappa membership. Bobbie Reber, Snow Queen, Jackie Hydbeck, Sigma Phi Epsilon Queen of Hearts, Peggy Josephson, Phi Sigma Kappa Moonlight Girl, Jackie Lundahl, Alpha Tau Omega Esquire Girl, Julie Briscoe, Military Ball Queen, and Gail Paige, Mardi Gras Queen. Gail also led the Pom-Pon Girls through an active year. Kappa rendition of "This Is Our Once a Year Day" proved true as they walked away with the second place trophy in the Newman Club Song Fest.

SIGMA KAPPA

Enthusiasm reigned in the newly enlarged Sigma Kappa house. Snow Week-end sculpturing and Interscholastic decorating brought first place trophies to their collection. Jane Borden, chosen outstanding junior woman, lived in the freshman dorm as head junior sponsor and divided the rest of her time between "the house" and her duties as editor of the 1960 Sentinel. Talented Marith McGinnis, the only freshman member of Jubileers, and historian of Montana Masquers, was chosen Miss MSU of 1960 and first runner-up in the Miss Montana contest. Louise Johnson, Judi Neeley and Judy Thomas served as Spurs. Louise, youngest Pan-hellenic president ever, was also active as treasurer of Alpha Lambda Delta, while Judy Thomas was an officer in WRA. Ann Kelso, Sigma Kappa president, was historian of Mortar Board and also selected a member of Phi Kappa Phi. Sharon Strickman led the MSU twirlers as head majorette. Cecile Laqua was state secretary of the Home Economics Club, while Dawn Drummond was an officer of the local club. Evie Obersoler served ASMSU as chairman of the Fact Finding Committee. For the third successive time, the Sigma Kappa's topped off a year by winning the Lantern Parade trophy.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

The Alpha Tau Omega house was a busy one this year as members participated in many phases of campus life. The sophomore men's honorary, Bear Paws, had John Montegna as a member. Many ATO's were members of campus and national honoraries. Leroy Anderson was president of the campus Young Republicans Club, while the Judo Club was headed by Dale Lumsden. In interfraternity sports, the ATO's tied for second in football and took second in volleyball. Their annual fall function, "Wake of Paddy Murphy," was very successful, as was the winter Esquima Ball.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

The Delta Sig's added a house mother this year, allowing for many informal get-togethers with campus coeds. Larry Pagett worked as associate editor of the 1960 Sentinel, and Jim Weiler assisted him. Joe Dietrich was busy in ROTC, Cosmopolitan Club, Bear Paws and the Gymnastic Club. Their final spring serenade with an Hawaiian flavor was the talk of the freshman girls dorm.

PHI DELTA THETA

Many activities on campus were aided by members of Phi Delta Theta. Members in Bear Paws included Wayne Leslie, Tom Riggert, John Joseph and president Denis Adams. Duane Adams was vice-president of ASMSU. Another leader was John Bennett, who was editor of the Kaimin. Interfraternity sports championships captured were football, volleyball, and swimming. Senior honorary Silent Sentinel members were Duane Adams and Cal Christian. Social life included the Hawaiian party in the fall and informal exchanges with campus societies. Winning first in house decorations for Interscholastic ended the Phi Del's year.

SIGMA CHI

The initiation of an annual Derby Day in fall quarter started the year right for the Sigma Chi's. This was supplemented by many social activities during the year, including the French party, the Prohibition party, a four-day week-end party, and the big function: the Sweetheart Ball, which was topped off by the crowning of the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. Social life was fun, but the Sigma Chi's were very active in campus affairs, too. Gary Bradley was a member of Central Board and Tim Grattan, Gary Beiswanger, and Bradley were all active members of Silent Sentinel, senior men's honorary. The sophomores were active, too, as Ralph Gilham was a member of Bear Paws. Other activities included many group leaders, Kams and Dregs members, and "M" Club members. Even with this local work, the Sigma Chi's found time to be host to the district SX convention which included five chapters. The Newman Club songfest finished off the year with a first-place trophy.

SIGMA NU

Down on Gerald Avenue one of the oldest national fraternities on campus, Sigma Nu, was active in campus activities and in Greek circles. The sophomores were high on the activity list as seven of them were members of Bear Paws. They were Ernie Ratzburg, Mike Curran, Tom Briggs, Pat McDonald, Jay Hess, Dick Austin, and Dave Aldrich. Seniors, too, made their mark in honoraries with Jerry Metcalf, Jerry Beller, and Warren Drew in Silent Sentinel. These activities were accompanied by many social functions, the main ones being the barn dance in the fall and the Piggy Dinner in the spring. Campus-wide, the Sigma Nus were known royally too, as Jerry Beller was elected Peppermint Prince and Jerry Metcalf was chosen Mardi Gras king. Rudy Ruana won the NCAA slalom championship in skiing. Another field in which Sigma Nu worked was ROTC. In the annual Rotary Leadership award for AFROTC, Cadet Colonel Jerry Beller was selected outstanding senior. In Army ROTC, Warren Drew was selected for the Rotary Leadership award.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Paul Ulrich
President

The traditional Red Door on the house on University Avenue was kept busy this year with members of Sigma Phi Epsilon going to and coming from their many activities on campus. These extended from campus government to ugliest man on campus contest. In student government, the Sig Eps were quite active with Paul Ulrich, Ed Miller and Buzz Remstar on Central Board and John Carlson as an active member of State Board. Another phase of government, Inter-fraternity Council, was helped by the services of Doug James, treasurer. Bear Paws also had Sig Ep members in Dan Bieri, Jack Griffith, and John Carlson, who was vice-president. Social life started with the Queen of Hearts Ball during fall quarter. Winter quarter saw the Bowery Ball turn out successfully, as did the three-day spring week-end. Quite a bit different from the social functions were the trips taken by the Army ROTC drill team. These trips were headed by Sig Ep Bill Mott, who commanded the drill team. During spring quarter, the Sig Eps received recognition when Skip Hovey won the campus "Ugly Man" contest. Interscholastics finished off the year with the second place trophy won for house decorations.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Sigma Alpha Epsilon enjoyed a full year with participation in social, musical, governmental and many other activities on campus. The student body was aided greatly by the SAE's; Howard Hansen, business manager of ASMSU; and Dave Morris, Bob Sankovich, John Uvilo and Rich Martin, delegates to Central Board. Fraternity government was led by Curt Jacobson, president of Interfraternity Council. Music was another field of participation, with Jerry Nordstrom, Jerry Colness, Charles Hood and Ken Maki members of Jubileers. SAE's showed musical talents in taking second place in the Newman Club songfest. They were well represented in honoraries with Rich Martin and Sid Shrauger in Silent Sentinel and Carl Lehrkind, Ken Maki, Bob Means, Tom Ross, and Bob Sankovich all members of Bear Paws. Campus representation was completed with Charles Hood on the Kamin. The annual Paddy Murphy Party and the Violet Ball were quite successful; Don Hubbard was crowned Snow King to highlight winter quarter. Spring weekend and the Sig Alph Olympics topped off the social year for the SAE's.

Fourth row: Jack Cragwell, Tom Monahan, Assistant Dean of Students, Homer Staves, Tony Wastman.

Interfraternity Council is the representative body of the nine Greek fraternities on campus. I.F.C. supervised rush periods and organized a successful Greek weekend, which began with a cleaning and white-washing of the Pineview Hospital. It ended on the oval with lunch and skits. Officers of I.F.C. were president Curt Jacobson, vice-president Art Hudson, secretary Tim Gentian, and treasurer Doug Janas.

"O Brother Mine"

Seated: Becky Knege, Gail Gray, Helene Loy, Elaine Hahn, Barbara Lee. Standing: Dora Squires, Jan Obermayer, Louise Johnson, Diane Moray, Carol Anthony, Zena McGlashan.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

Pan-Hellenic Council gathers representatives from each of the six national societies to ensure effective participation for these groups on campus, as well as smooth relationships among the groups. Pan-hel set up and supervised the several rush periods during the year, organized Christmas caroling, and participated with I.F.C. on Greek weekend. Officers this year were president Louise Johnson, vice-president Dora Squires, Secretary Helene Loy, and treasurer Zena McGlashan.

Turner Hall, the residence of upper-class non-sorority women students.

Pleasant rooms and beautiful surroundings make Turner Hall one of the most enjoyable dorms on campus. Among the many campus-minded-minded Turnerites were Hazel Wilson and Betsy Winship, who spent some time out of Turner as junior sponsors in the freshman dorm.

The newspaper is always an excellent diversion for the waiting mate.

Turner girls leave for a morning of classes or an afternoon in the Lodge.

F.V. was a new addition to Turner this year and proved a drawing card to many.

TURNER HALL

Turner residents usually ate cafeteria style in the Lodge, but now and then seated services were held to provide a social lunch.

Government within Turner is provided by a council consisting of hall and wing officers.

Beattie Hall is one of the three parts of the freshmen women's Triangle. Housed in the building are the main office, lounge and a kitchen which provides breakfast service for Triangle and Turner Hall women.

Triangle officers who governed the entire freshman dorm were Barbara Dorfman, Kenneth Kaimowitz, president, Marge Mougher, and Sandy Swank.

Traditional fall function for the freshman Triangle is the Peppermint Prince Ball. Kimmie Kammerzell, assisted by Nancy Craig, Ellen Shure, and Pat Taylor crowns Jerry Beller, 1959 Peppermint Prince.

BRANTLY HALL

Pat Taylor, Barbara Bowman and Peggy Josephson set up the throne for the Ball.

Corbin officers were Judy Hove, Miss Stacey, president, Sue Prindle, and June Linn.

Corbin Hall seemed destined for fame this year. The girls from Corbin won first place with their Homemaking Hunt and another first in the W. R. A. swimming competition.

Hall Council meetings, such as this, took care of the government of the dorms as three separate bodies. This was found too difficult to handle so a consolidated charge was made spring quarter to cover all business in Triade meetings.

CORBIN HALL

Necessary equipment for any dorm are the house mothers with their friendly smiles, pertinent advice, and able guidance.

Miss Hovess, Assistant Head Resident.

Miss Huff, Head Resident

Miss Ellis, Head Counselor

A usual night on Tuesday night was the corridor meeting. This one was on North Corbin first.

North Corbin officers were Peggy Josephson, Pat Taylor, president, Toni Hoffeller, and Katie Dunn.

North Corbin is the youngest of the three dorms which comprise Triangle. Having the disadvantage of no front door and serving as a thoroughfare between Brantly and Corbin, the girls, especially those on first floor, soon learned North Corbin could be an admirable base of both defensive and offensive operations.

Mrs. Moore, Assistant Head Resident

Mrs. Hazelmaker, Assistant Head Resident

NORTH CORBIN HALL

SYNADELPHIC

After an exciting cat in the snow, nothing could be better than a "Throw Out" party in front of the fireplace.

Everyone wants to get into the act to keep Elrod grades high, even Curly, pictured here with Susan, Trudson, and Tom Lawrence.

ELROD HALL

Elrod men prove that non-Greeks are not "out of it". Teaming with Sigma Kappa for Snow Week, Elrod they walked away with first place in the sculpturing contest. As for grades, Elrod men are in the top rank.

Elrod officers were Ed Cary, Bob Witt, Tony Agto, and Bob Oswald.

A familiar scene in Elrod—Mrs. Berry and women at "her boys" in an informal discussion.

One of the newer dorms on campus is Craig Hall, which provides quarters for many, many men students.

Dave Morris, very active in Central Board, was Craig's candidate for Pyperennial Prince.

CRAIG HALL

Sprawling over the area in back of the Lodge, Craig is the home of freshmen men, athletes, and any overflow from Elrod. Residents of Craig Hall showed themselves adept at decorating — a first in the Homecoming float building, and a second with Delta Gamma in snow sculpturing.

WE LOVE YOU!"

PATRONS' PAGE

The 1960 SENTINEL staff has realized in this past year the great financial needs of a University yearbook. Regardless of student budgetary allocations, the financial security of the book could not have existed on student support alone. This is a page of merchants and professional men who have contributed to the yearbook and, therefore, to every University student. I wish to thank these patrons for their contributions and especially for their greatly appreciated interest in Montana State University.

THANKS . . .

August 30, 1960

The summer has almost flown, the book is finished and my job, and that of about 100 other people is done. The 1960 Sentinel is no one-man (a-hem, one-woman) book. The staff was larger and worked more willingly than any I can ever remember in my three years with the Sentinel. They slaved all year, right up to the end of spring quarter, and this was quite a feat what with spring fever and all. The book was planned and executed by the people named at the beginning of each section; consequently it is the product of MSU from student money to student ideas and student work. To the many people who helped with planning, drawing layouts, identifying pictures, writing copy, typing, indexing, and on and on and on, and especially to Chuck Janda, Kent Meek, Whitey McGill and Hideo Kimura for their photography and to Marshall Holmberg for his delightful drawings of Yogi Bear, my thanks are gratefully given.

More thanks are due to Budget and Finance Committee, Central Board and ASMSU for the greatly increased appropriations which allowed us to have more color, better covers, larger class pictures and the enlarged faculty section.

Johnson Flying Service for providing the means to get that aerial shot on page 6.

Bob Gilluly of News Service for athletic facts, figures and pictures.

The Kalman—John Bennett and Rolf Olson for the pictures and friendly conversations—sorry we didn't ever have time for coffee.

Cyrile Van Duser for advice, consolation, photography and the one hundred and one other things she did during the year to help with the production of the 1960 Sentinel.

The Salisbury's of Artcraft Engraving—Al and Bert and their crew for their excellent engravings and Jane and Barbara for entertaining me so well on my Seattle trip to investigate the workings of an engraving plant.

Claud Lord for the summer job and Lucy Gibson for the advice and help on all those last finishing touches.

The boys in the print shop—Fred, Gale, Don, A.P. and Larry, the "very put-upon" printers, who managed to make heads and tails out of my instructions and convince me of the value of the majority of their ideas, and Willie, Gene and Vernal, the "greatly pressured" pressmen, who spent so much time patiently explaining the workings of the presses and still successfully completed the printing and folding of the many sections of the book.

Finally, to the MSU Bindery a special thank you for adding finishing touches to the cover and gathering everything together so we could have our 1960 Sentinel on time!

It has been a year full of hard work, but it has been a rewarding year and one that I shall hardly be able to forget.
